

Asset Manager, Commercial, Nrep, Copenhagen

Deadline:
10-06-2025

Contact person:
Mads Dehlbæk

Job area:
Asset management

Position type:
Full time

Company:
Nrep

Are you ambitious, performance-driven, curious about commercial real estate, and eager to grow in a collaborative and forward-thinking environment? Join our Commercial Asset Management team at Nrep, Urban Partners as our new team member.

Urban Partners is a visionary investment platform focused on shaping better urban living. We bring together deep sector knowledge, long-term capital, and a strong commitment to sustainability to unlock potential in real estate and beyond. As part of our commercial platform, you will help manage and improve buildings that serve businesses and communities across Copenhagen and beyond.

We are looking for someone who is performance driven, ambitious, motivated, ready to learn, and curious about what makes properties perform - both financially and socially.

The team

At Urban Partners, we are a community of people with different backgrounds, working toward shared goals. Our Asset Management team is hands-on, proactive, creative thinking, engaged, and commercial - and we work closely with colleagues across investments, letting, development, operations ESG etc.

We believe in learning by doing, and in supporting each other along the way. Here, you will be part of a workplace that values people as much as performance and where your personal development matters just as much as your professional growth.

About the role

As our new team member in Commercial Asset Management, you will support the day-to-day management of a commercial real estate portfolio and contribute to long-term value creation. You will get broad exposure to asset operations, tenant relations, letting, ESG improvements, and business planning.

Your tasks may include

- Supporting the delivery of asset strategies across selected commercial properties
- Assisting with onboarding new assets and partners
- Contributing to sustainability initiatives, maintenance planning, and tenant dialogue
- Helping coordinate with internal teams (e.g., transactions, finance, letting)
- Responsibility for the property performance, including participation in budgeting, reporting, and follow-up
- Bringing fresh perspective and a willingness to learn

Whether you are just out of studies or have a few years of experience, we will tailor the role to your development.

Experience and skills

We believe potential comes in many forms. That is why we do not require a specific education, a spotless CV, or advanced technical skills. It would though be beneficial if you have some kind of background in the real estate business already. If you are someone who enjoys working with buildings and people, is ambitious and eager to drive value, we would love to hear from you.

What helps you succeed in this role:

- Curiosity and a genuine interest in real estate
- A structured and proactive approach to tasks, big or small
- Is an ambitious team player
- Is confident and has good negotiation skills
- An open mind and strong collaboration skills

You might have experience from a job in real estate, property management, service, or something else entirely. Or you may be just getting started and that is also great.

What we offer

- Make a Difference – Contribute to creating urban spaces that enrich people's lives in the most sustainable way.
- Lead the Industry – Be part of an innovator pioneering new approaches while raising standards and inspiring change.
- Learn & Grow – Work alongside a powerhouse of brilliant people where teamwork, feedback, and diverse perspectives drive success.
- Be Your Whole Self – Join a purpose-driven culture with a strong sense of belonging, based on trust, celebration, and caring for one another.

Join us

Please submit your application, cover letter and CV latest 10th of June 2025. We will be conducting interviews on an ongoing basis, so please submit as soon as possible.

Any questions about the position can be sent to Mads Birkedahl Dehlbæk at mbde@nrep.com.
We look forward to hearing from you!